We present herewith our first volume of the Bellefonte City Directory which includes the adjacent boroughs of State College, Howard and Milesburg.

We have made every effort to make this, our first issue, as complete and accurate as possible, and we feel assured that our patrons as well as the public in general will find it a representative directory.

We will issue the Bellefonte, Etc., Directory again in due course and will make such improvements and additions thereto as we may deem necessary for the interest of our patrons and subscribers.

We take pleasure in thanking the citizens of this territory for their co-operation in extending our representatives the necessary information for this volume, and express our appreciation for the liberal patronage received.
